WORK EXPERIENCE

09/2016–Present

Co-founder, research fellow

Eurasian States in Transition Research Center (EAST Center), Warsaw (Poland)

EAST Center is the Warsaw-based think-tank focused on post-Soviet and East European studies. The Center's three main spheres are media analysis in the post-Soviet countries, the study of Eurasian integration, and regular monitoring of the socio-economic situation in a number of CIS-countries. Our advantages are promptness and wide use of elaborate infographics and visuals.

Scientific co-editor of the book Vulnerability and Resilience to Kremlin-led Disinformation Warfare in Central and Eastern Europe (forthcoming, 2018). The book will include fourteen country chapters and a quantitative index assessing national vulnerabilities and resilience to Kremlin-led disinformation campaigns throughout fourteen CEE countries.

08/2017–10/2017

Researcher

Fellowship at the GLOBSEC Policy Institute, Bratislava (Slovakia)

I produced a systematic analysis of the re-export of embargoed Western products to Russia through Belarus. The research assesses volumes of trade in embargoed products and specifies their fake countries of origin. Furthermore, it presents the impact of this phenomenon on Belarus-Russia relations and developments within the Eurasian Economic Union. The following research paper was published:

Yeliseyeu, Andrei. Belarusian shrimps anyone? How EU food products make their way to Russia through Belarus. GLOBSEC Policy Institute, 2017. [\[LINK\]](#)

09/2013–11/2016

Mentor

Ukrainian Catholic University, Lviv (Ukraine)

I mentored Ukrainian students and graduate students at the Schools of International Journalism organized by the Ukrainian Catholic University, Department of Journalism, arguably the best journalism department in Ukraine. Six four-day journalism schools had taken place by late 2016.

Under my guidance around forty journalists produced analytical articles which were published at the regional and leading national Ukrainian media.

04/2016–05/2017

Lecturer

European College of Liberal Arts in Belarus (ECLAB), Minsk (Belarus)

I elaborated and read the course International organizations in contemporary world politics: Belarus case and organized visits to the offices of international organizations (the EU, the Council of Europe, the UN) for ECLAB students.

Contact person: Alexander Adamiants, Director of European College of Liberal Arts in Belarus (ECLAB), Director of Center of European Studies (Minsk), email: avadam@gmail.com

01/2016–08/2016

Analytical Journalist

BEL.BIZ Center of Business Communication, Minsk (Belarus)

At the Bel.biz business portal I run two projects in analytical journalism. First, I used to produce weekly analysis of the most important trends or events in Belarus (Topic of the Week), with a wide use of infographics.

A couple of examples:

Entire branches wither away: New statistics sheds light on emergency situation in Belarusian industry (link, RU)

Online search statistics: Belarusians seek jobs in Poland five times more often than before (link, RU)

Second, I did a series of reports about socio-political and economic situation in Moldova and Ukraine, timed to 25 years of their independence. Examples of reports on political history and current situation in Moldova for wider readership can be seen here and here, a piece on socio-political situation in Ukrainian Kryvyi Rih can be found here.

06/2012–12/2015 Research Fellow

Belarusian Institute for Strategic Studies, Minsk (Belarus)

I was responsible for producing research papers, briefs, monitoring analytical products in accordance with the think-tank's research agenda. I represented the BISS at national and international conferences, forums, and discussions at state institutions. During my work for the BISS, in 2015 it was recognized as top-ranked Belarusian think-tank by the Belarusian Research Council.

Research areas: migration, visa policy and readmission, EU-Belarus relations, Belarus' relations with developing countries, international public law, international human rights law, potash market. Links to my research and brief papers produced at BISS can be found below.

- Editor and regular author of the quarterly BISS Eurasian Review, January 2014 – December 2015.
- Editor of the biannual monitoring reports on the main political, economic, legal, geopolitical and cultural trends in Belarus (BISS-Trends), June 2012 – January 2014.
- Editor of the monthly monitoring reports on political, economic, social, and cultural developments in Belarus (BISS-Timeline), January 2013 – December 2013.
- A few hundred commentaries and interviews in the media on the topics of my expertise.

08/2013–09/2013 Researcher

Fellowship at the Finnish Institute of International Affairs, Helsinki (Finland)

I researched border cooperation at the EU's eastern frontiers. The following paper was published by the FIIA:

Yeliseyeu, Andrei. Keeping the door ajar. Local border traffic regimes on the EU's eastern borders. Finnish Institute of International Affairs, FIIA report 41, 2014. [Link]

Contact person: Arkady Moshes, Programme Director (The EU's Eastern Neighbourhood and Russia research programme) at the FIIA, arkady.moshes@fiia.fi

11/2011–05/2012 Research Fellow

Belarusian Center for European Studies, Minsk (Belarus)

I produced research on EU sanctions policy towards Belarus, EU-Belarus relations, international human rights law mechanisms, etc. A few examples of my analytical pieces:

EU's sanctions policy towards Belarus: Analysis of effectiveness (link, RU)

Lawsuit against Belarusian Minister of Interior: How the principle of universal jurisdiction works (link, RU)

Belarusian officials bypass EU visa ban: Loopholes or legitimate exceptions? (link, RU)

09/2009–10/2011 International correspondent, journalist

European Radio for Belarus, Minsk (Belarus)

Key Euroradio reporter on international affairs responsible for covering European affairs as well as Belarus' domestic politics & NGO activities. My work included regular contributions to the radio program Eurofocus designed to rise awareness in European affairs and inform the public about Belarus' cooperation with the European Union, the Council of Europe, the OSCE and other international organizations.

- More than 300 three-minute long radio reports on politics and NGO activities in Belarus, European affairs, EU-Belarus relations, etc.
- Experienced in reporting from the EU institutions. I spent about two months in working trips to Brussels, Strasbourg and Luxembourg, reporting from the European Parliament & the Council of Ministers, interviewing the European Commission officials.
- I did extensive coverage of 2010 Poland's presidential campaign, including interviews with the Presidential candidates, and occasionally reported from some other EU countries.
- First place award in the Journalism Contest EU - Belarus 2010, organized by the Belarusian Association of Journalists and the EU Delegation in Belarus.
- First place award in the 2012 national journalism contest Tvoj Styl (Your Style) nominated for the best piece on youth leadership in Belarus.
- I represented the Belarus' journalistic community at the World Press Freedom Day 2011 official events in the United States.

Communication skills

Experienced in giving public presentations, many appearances on TV and radio programs. I have given public presentations in English, Polish, Russian, Ukrainian and Belarusian at various national and international conferences, round tables, discussions at state institutions, briefings for foreign diplomats, etc.

I keep improving my presentation skills by attending specialized seminars. In June 2015 I attended a one-day training How to Make the Camera Work for You in a Television Appearance by Rita Miliūtė, a known Lithuanian media specialist.

Organisational / managerial skills

I am the active member of the Global Shapers Minsk Hub <http://minskhub.org/>, part of the Global Shapers Community, an initiative of the World Economic Forum. In 2016/17 I was an Ongoing Curator of the Minsk Hub. In January 2016, our team member was invited to the 46th Annual meeting of the World Economic Forum in Davos.

For this reason the Minsk Hub elaborated a proposal Minsk Hub of Peace to set up in Belarus a long-lasting international platform under the aegis of the Global Shapers Community / WEF, which would deal with resolution of conflicts which affect post-Soviet countries. Minsk Hub's essay on this topic prepared by me in cooperation with two other team members was distributed among 2.5 thousand of Davos-2016 guests and published at the WEF Webpage.

In October 2017 the Global Shapers Minsk Hub, in cooperation with the Belarusian School Association, organized a first meeting designed for professional development of school teachers in EdCamp format, which gathered around 80 professionals [\[LINK\]](#)

A member of the Younger Generation Leaders Network on Euro-Atlantic Security (YGLN), an initiative of the Nuclear Threat Initiative. The network brings together nearly 80 emerging leaders of 27 nationalities throughout Europe – including Russia and Turkey – and the United States to discuss the most pressing Euro-Atlantic security challenges of the 21st century [\[LINK\]](#)
